

Mr. Kirk L Weber
Senior Director
Rockwell Collins Service Operations

Kirk L. Weber is the Sr. Director of Rockwell Collins Service Operations. In this position Kirk is responsible for global maintenance, repair, and overhaul of fielded Collins equipment, including the material planning and inventory for external parts sales and internal repair activity. He is also responsible for global asset programs including rental/exchange activity, Performance Based Logistics (PBL) Programs, and aircraft line maintenance, in this $600M, 1400 person global business, Kirk is responsible for growth strategies, and all aspects of operations. Kirk holds a MBA from the University of Iowa and a BS in Industrial Engineering from Iowa State University. Prior to that, Kirk has held various positions during his 33 years at Rockwell Collins. This includes Sr. Director of Air Transport and Military Data Links Manufacturing Operations and various positions of leadership in the Operations group. In the past, Kirk has been involved with United Way, YMCA and IMSE Industry Board.

Term: 2016